OUR FIRST CHURCH PAPER.

As soon as the Reformed Church awoke to the need of educating her own missionaries, and to take care of her own people scattered throughout the country, she found it necessary to have a Church paper. The claims of the Seminary and the Mission work must be told to the people. The Home Mission Board started "The Magazine of the German Reformed Church" in 1828, and Dr. Lewis Mayer, the first Professor in the Theological Seminary, was chosen its first editor. The progress of the Church and the Church paper have always been vitally connected. They are so now, and always will be. The Magazine was first published at Carlisle, then at York, then at Chambersburg, and since 1864 in Philadelphia. Its name was soon changed to that of "The Messenger of the German Reformed Church." With slight changes in name, and marked changes in its make-up, The Messenger has been issued continuously for seventy-five years. The oldest Church paper in the United States today is only five years older than The Messenger. Above will be found a group containing the portraits of its former Editors-in-Chief. The record is as follows: Rev. Lewis Mayer, D.D. (1828-35), Rev. B. Schneck, D.D. (1835-44 and 47-52), Rev. S. R. Fisher, D.D. (1840-75), Rev. P. S. Davis, D.D. (1875-87), Rev. C. G. Fisher, D.D. (1887-96). The founding of our first Church paper was an important event; and now at the close of three-quarters of a century it is only proper that its significance should be recognized. During this year there should be "A Messenger Day" in every church, that the worth and importance of the Church paper may be shown to the people.

LOOKING BACKWARD.

During the year 1903 the Reformed Church made substantial progress. Many new churches were built; many others were remodeled. The interest of the people in the benevolent work of the Church was not only maintained but increased. The contributions to Home and Foreign Missions were larger than ever before. There was no falling off in the number of students for the ministry. The church services were well attended—an evidence of faith, in pulpit and in pew. The Church is becoming conscious of her worth, her strength and her duty.

THE TWENTY-FIFTH ANNIVERSARY OF THE FOUNDING OF THE JAPAN MISSION.

THE last General Synod approved the suggestion of the Board of Foreign Missions to celebrate the twenty-fifth anniversary of the founding of the Japan Mission in June, 1904. On the first day of that month Rev. Ambrose D. Gring, our first missionary to Japan, arrived with his wife at Yokohama. It is the earnest wish of the Mission, that a special fund of One Hundred Thousand Dollars be raised in connection with this celebration for the equipment of the Japan work. Literature will be sent out by the Mission and the Board to assist in making the event tell for the extension of our work both in Japan and China.

LOOKING AHEAD.

The lines along which the Reformed Church should work are clearly indicated. Loyalty to the Nation, loyalty to the Church, loyalty to Christ, requires that we should push our Home Mission work with constantly increasing vigor. We need to work among our own people, among the Germans, among the Bohemians, and the Hungarians. The more the Church does at home the more she will be able and willing to do on the Foreign Mission field. The Reformed Church has glorious opportunities in Japan and China. For all this work we need men, and must liberally endow the Colleges and Seminaries. To enlighten and inspire the people we must put the Church papers into every family. The subscription price of The Messenger is only $1.25 per year. It will be sent on trial for 3 months to any person not a subscriber for 25 cents. Sample copy free. Address, Reformed Church Messenger, 1306 Arch St., Philadelphia.

THE NEW DORMITORY AT MERCERSBURG.

A GROWING AND PROSPEROUS SCHOOL.

THE name of Mercersburg has always been associated in the minds of Reformed people with education. The little mountain town has been made famous through its schools. At present its Academy is taking rank among the very first Boys' Preparatory Schools in the United States. Under the presidency of Dr. Irvine it has been steadily growing until at present it enrolls the names of 325 boys. This growth has made it necessary to erect a new dormitory which will accommodate 150 students. Every available room in the town has been secured, but nevertheless seventy boys were turned away for lack of accommodations. This school has its own pastor, and maintains its foreign missionary, Dr. J. Albert Beam, Medical Missionary at Yo Chau, China. Under the president's leadership the school contributes towards the erection of the new hospital and dispensary to be erected for Dr. Beam, and will support the principal of the Boys' School.

THE REFORMED CHURCH AND CIVIL LIBERTY.

The President of the first United States Congress, and seven of the Governors of Pennsylvania, have been men of German descent.

In Switzerland the Reformed people contended for both civil and religious liberty. The Palatines left their homes because there they could have neither. In America this same spirit early showed itself. When it was doubtful whether the Quakers, who were royalists, or the Scotch-Irish should prevail in the vote of Pennsylvania for or against joining the other colonies, the franchise was given to the German population. By their vote it was decided that Pennsylvania should join in the struggle for independence. When the Liberty Bell was in danger of falling into the hands of the British it was hauled to Allentown and hidden in Zion's Reformed church. After Robert Morris gave up in despair the office of Treasurer for the Continental Congress it was Hillegas, a member of the Reformed Church who raised $100,000 to save Washington's army from destruction. Few people know that the mother tongue of William Penn was Dutch and that he was able to preach in that tongue.

WORTH MORE THAN A FARM.

A boy or girl, if he or she happens to be your boy or girl, is worth more than a farm. Each one is worth at least Ten Thousand dollars. And it pays better in the long run to invest your money in educating and training them for their life's work than to buy a farm for each of them. The demand for good, faithful Christian men and women never grows less.

A GROUP OF HUNGARIAN CHURCHES.

Trenton, N. J. S. Norwalk, Conn. Pittsburg, Pa.
Johnstown, Pa.

OUR HUNGARIAN WORK.

THIS work, begun in 1890, has made noteworthy progress. We now have fourteen Hungarian missionaries at work in as many charges.

2. In these missions a large, regular membership is enrolled, besides many who come great distances to special services; and the missionaries also go as often as they can to adjacent towns, preaching and administering the sacraments.

3. Of a possible one million Hungarians in the United States about one hundred thousand are members of our Church in Hungary.

4. The missionaries publish "The Sentinel," a large weekly Hungarian church paper, and also a Hungarian Sunday-school paper.

5. Rev. Stephen L. Harsanyi is our traveling Hungarian missionary.

6. He is organizing "The Hungarian Christian Association," to interest his scattered countrymen, to awaken in them the hope of pastors, and to gather from them money for this great work.

AN HISTORICAL EXHIBIT.

The Almanac from year to year illustrates the history and progress of the Church. The pictures in this number, which are perhaps only interesting now, will be valuable years hence. On the cover will be found a picture of the Masonic Temple in Chambersburg, Pa., from which The Messenger was issued for a number of years. At the foot of the calendar pages will be found pictures of 24 missions, east of the Alleghenies. Last year the missions west of this dividing line were presented. The whole Church will also be interested in our North Carolina Exhibit. These sixteen churches have been built in the last fifteen years. The pictures from China and Japan show that the work there is being laid on good foundations. Those of local churches indicate in no uncertain way the progress and prosperity of the Church in the home land. At no time in its history has the Reformed Church been so prosperous, never were its prospects brighter, nor its responsibilities greater.

TWO NEW MISSIONARIES.

THE China and Japan Missions have been reinforced by two valuable additions during the past year. Miss Christine Reifsneider arrived in China last July, and is now engaged in the study of the language, and in teaching English in the Girls' School at Yochow. She is a daughter of Elder L. B. Reifsneider, of Philadelphia. She is a lady of liberal culture, has been a successful teacher, and is admirably qualified for her future work. Of the needs in China and the importance of missionary effort, she writes: "I had no idea that human beings could fall so low. It will take generations of civilizing, Christianizing influence to lift them out of their present awful condition."

Miss Mary E. Marden has been married to Rev. Allen K. Faust, of Sendai, Japan. She is a young lady of culture and high ideals. Her father and two brothers are ministers in the Presbyterian Church. Miss Marden is a member of the Reformed Church, and for ten years was a faithful teacher in the High School of Lansdale, Pa.

MISS CHRISTINE REIFSNEIDER.

SEVEN REASONS WHY THE MESSENGER SHOULD BE IN EVERY REFORMED HOME.

1. Because it is the paper of the Church. 2. Because when compared with other Church papers it is remarkably cheap. Price, $1.25.

MRS. ALLEN K. FAUST.

3. Because through it can be learned what the Reformed Church is doing. Its readers will be more intelligent and hence more ready to advance Christ's kingdom.

4. Because it is one of the best educators of the family.

5. Because its contributions are mostly from the pens of Reformed ministers, and its contents are of special interest to Reformed people.

6. Because its general news is reliable.

7. Because it helps to develop the Christian life.

A FEW THINGS EVERY CONGREGATION SHOULD DO.

1. Pay its pastor a living salary, and pay it monthly.
2. Have a parsonage.
3. Keep its church and church grounds in good order.
4. Pay all its bills promptly.
5. Pay its apportionment in full.
6. Aid in every denominational enterprise.
7. Work to save men at home and abroad.
8. Circulate the Church paper.

Does your congregation do all these things? If not, why not?

THE PROGRESS OF THE REFORMED CHURCH IN NORTH CAROLINA.

ONLY within the last fifteen years has aggressive missionary work been undertaken in North Carolina. Remarkable success has attended this effort as is readily seen from the fact that within that period congregations have been organized and churches built at twenty-two additional points. Many other new churches and parsonages have also been built. All of these congregations are in the very heart of the great new industrial section of the Piedmont region, and many of them are in the large towns and cities. Every dollar appropriated to these missions has been wisely placed and tells in the building up of the Reformed Church in the South. The success of fifteen years of earnest missionary work shows that North Carolina is a good field for the Reformed Church. There are numerous other towns and cities offering inviting openings. Here we have a nucleus of over 5 000 confirmed and unconfirmed members. Here we have a good mission school in Catawba College. Here we can make an investment that is certain to return good dividends in dollars and cents, in new congregations and churches and parsonages, and in precious souls brought to the Master. Such an investment pays richly.

Pictures of these new churches are shown on this and the following pages.

FACTS IN BRIEF.

1. The Board of Home Missions is elected by the General Synod. It meets every three months to direct the work.

2. In the whole Church we have 150 missions. Of these, one-third are managed and supported by the three German Synods. The rest are managed by the General Synod's Board and are supported by the five English Synods.

3. It now costs about $75.000 a year to carry on these one hundred missions. A healthy and growing boy needs more food and clothing every year, and a healthy and growing missionary work requires more money every year.

4. And our people are giving more. They understand the work better and so they support it better. Never before did so many congregations pay the apportionment in full. Many are giving large sums, and many are today remembering the work in their wills.

5. But our missions also are liberal givers. They pay an average of $9 a member for congregational use, besides 90 cents a member for benevolence. This shows that helping themselves in such large measure they deserve our help.

THE APPORTIONMENT.

What is the apportionment? That question is easily answered. The whole sum needed by any Board for one year is divided among the Synods, or apportioned, as one may say; each Synod divides its part or apportionment among its Classes; each Classis divides its part among the congregations, and so the "apportionment" is that amount which each congregation should raise to make up the whole amount needed by any Board for its work for one year.

YOUR BOUNDEN DUTY.

If you are a Christian it is your duty to spread your religion. Just because it is valuable to you you must give it away. This is true of ministers, and of members alike. Religion is not the business of a profession. It is the business of every man and every woman. According to the teaching of the Reformed Church every member is a priest. It believes in the universality of the priesthood. Every member must accordingly be a missionary. When every Church member understands this and begins to work to spread his religion a great day for the Church will have come.

REFORMED SCHOOLS FOR REFORMED MINISTERS.

REFORMED schools are the best for educating men for the Reformed ministry. There they will learn the genius and temper of their own church as nowhere else. There they will learn loyalty to their spiritual mother. There they will form friendships which will not only cheer, but strengthen them throughout their whole ministry. And in many ways this applies also to some of the Reformed families who do not have the ministry in view. College life elsewhere tends to educate them away from their Church. Reformed colleges are best for Reformed boys just because they are Reformed. It is here taken for granted that they do as faithful and as efficient work as is done in any college in the land.

ESTIMATED NEEDS.

The Board of Foreign Missions is asking for $125,000 for the year 1904. This may seem an excessive amount, but it is only fifty cents per member. The estimates for the Missions and the home expenses will be not less than $50,000. Add to this amount $25,000 for the North Japan College; $15,000 additional to pay for the Girls' school buildings; $5.000 for the Missionary Home at Tokio; $4,000 for the Boys' School, China; $2,000 additional for the China Hospital, and $23,000 for the present indebtedness.

OUR CHURCH-BUILDING FUNDS.

1. A Church-building Fund is $500 or more, given to the Board of Home Missions, and bearing a suitable name, that of the giver or another, and held on record as a distinct Fund. This money is loaned to a mission for building a church or for buying ground.

2. The first Fund was completed in 1887. We now have over 150 such Funds. During 1903 an average of nearly one Fund every two weeks came into the treasury.

3. The Catechumen Church-building Fund No. 1 was completed several years ago. No. 2 lacks only a small sum. When this is finished No. 3 will be begun. We want all our catechumens throughout the English Church for years to come to have part in this beautiful work.

A Church-building Fund in memory of a father or mother is a worthier memorial than the erection of an expensive monument. A Fund may be given during the doners life time or by will.

AN EARLY AMERICAN GERMAN BIBLE.

The Bible was printed in German in America thirty-nine years before it appeared in English, and in the preface to his third edition, in 1776, Saur was still able to say:

"To the honor of the German people—for no other nation can assert that it has ever been printed in their language in this part of the world."

OUR AGED MINISTERS.

During last year the Relief Society received from collections in the churches $2.161.97, and as interest on invested funds $1,648.30, making in all $3,810.27. This was distributed among 20 ministers and 44 widows. But what is that among so many? The sum should be much larger. Let every congregation sometime during this year give a liberal offering to the society, that in the name of the Lord the Church may deal lovingly and generously with His aged and disabled sons and daughters. If you are making your will remember this society.

A TWENTY-FOUR-HOUR DAY.

Calling one day upon a business man in his office, I found him, as usual, "up to his eyes" in work.

"Sit down and wait a moment," he said, handing me a chair.

"You are always working," I remarked; "how many hours do you put in each day?"

"Twenty-four," he replied, with a smile.

My face expressed my astonishment.

"Yes," he said, I work ten or twelve hours here; the rest of the time I am working at the other side of the world—by proxy, of course."

"I don't understand," I said.

Here my friend took down a much-thumbed map of Southern China, and pointed out a certain town.

"That is where my man is at work," he said. "We have representatives of our business in several of the principal cities of the world. I call this our 'missionary branch.' My man there is working while I sleep. He is my substitute. In that way I work twenty-four hours a day—for the Master. I work here for the money to keep my representative working over there."—Ex.

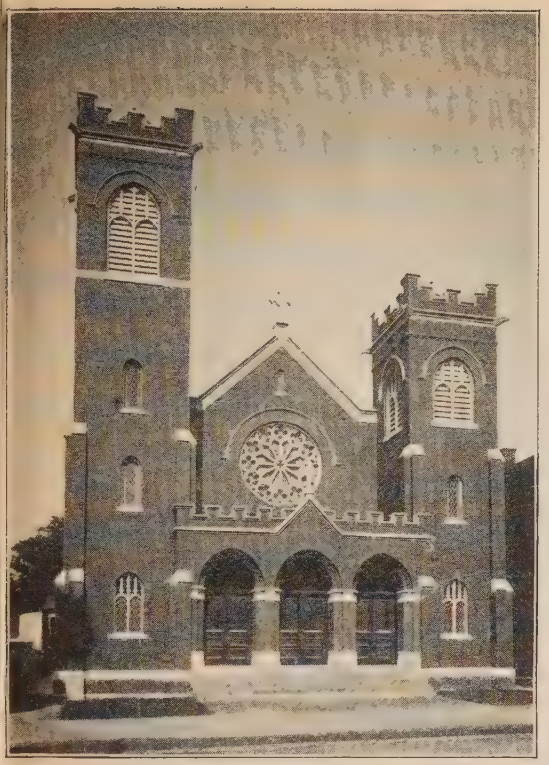
LEWISBURG REFORMED CHURCH,
Rev. R. L. Gerhart, D.D., Pastor.



GRACE CHURCH, FREDERICK, MD.,
Rev. E. L. McLean, Pastor.

A NEW CHURCH AT FREDERICK, MD.

THIS church stands for a principle in Missionary and Church Extension work worthy of consideration. The wisest, most economical and successful methods of establishing a mission or new congregation is, first of all, to provide a thorough e uipment. This flourishing congregation, which in four years became self-supporting, has a membership of 260, with 450 in the Sunday-school. It was organized by the Evangelical Reformed church, Frederick, Md., on March 6, 1898, with 43 members. The mother Church provided its chapel for the regular Sunday services, and a hall for Sunday-school and other purposes. It promised $10,000 towards a church building as soon as Grace church raised $5,000. Thus $15,000 in cash were made available on Nov. 2, 1901. The corner-stone was laid Aug. 4, 1902; dedicated Nov., 1903. It is made of brick; dimensions, 62 x 147 feet. It contains auditorium, Sunday-school room, primary room, library and consistory room. It is finished in oak. The windows are memorials. Lighted with electricity and heated with steam. The interior is finely frescoed. Entire cost, $26,000. Practically free of debt.

INTERNAL EVIDENCE.

A man of subtle reasoning asked
A peasant if he knew
Where was the internal evidence
That proved the Bible true.

The terms of disputative art
Had never reached his ear.
He laid his hand upon his heart,
And only answered, "Here."

HAZLETON'S NEW REFORMED CHURCH.

The corner-stone was laid June 8, 1902. It was dedicated March 8, 1903. It is built of brick, trimmed with blue stone. Its dimensions are 60 x 100 feet. The windows are stained glass. The Sunday-school room on the first floor seats 600, the auditorium above, 700, and a gallery, 100 more. It is finished in oak, heated by steam, lighted by electricity.

JUST OFF THE PRESS!

"SONGS OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE,"

By William J. Kirkpatrick and Dr. H. L. Gilmour, has been the greatest "seller" among books now in use. Why? Because it gives greatest value for money expended; it contains more than one hundred new songs, many standard choice selections in demand, as well as hymns which are in constant use. The greatest factor in the sale of the book, aside from the hymns, is its mechanical perfection. "SONGS OF CHRISTIAN SERVICE" is bound in boards and costs but $15.00 the hundred. Single copies by mail, 20 cents. It may be obtained from any dealer or direct from us (Philadelphia or New York), at the published price. Samples for examination free of charge (to be returned if not paid for).

THE IDEA

of sending samples of publications free of charge (to be paid for only if kept) originated with us. Any Superintendent, Pastor or Committee will be supplied with Sample Copies (not specimen pages) of any book we publish, or of any number of our publications desired, from which to select a book for any department of religious work. No charge is made for this service, the only provision being the return of the books or the equivalent in cash, if they are retained.

This gives you the opportunity of "trying before buying." Our line of productions is very extensive, comprising books ranging in price from $8.00 to $25.00 the hundred.

Franklin and Marshall College

Presents a happy combination of the old and the new in education. It has back of it a body of sound philosophy and pedagogy, as well as a most honorable record in scientific and humanitarian study; and it is keenly alive to the advantages and needs of the present day. It offers, therefore,

The Soundest Basis of Education
The Best arranged Courses of Study.
The Most Improved Methods of Instruction and
The Latest Facilities for Class-Room and Laboratory Work

The elective system is used, but with moderation. Each course is made broad enough to secure thorough discipline and harmonious development at the same time that it widens out and affords room for choice in order that time may be used to the best advantage and the student be led on to thorough study and independent research. Ancient and Modern Languages, History, Mathematics, Social and Political Science, Philosophy, (including Psychology, Æsthetics and Ethics), English Literature, Rhetoric and Oratory, Astronomy, Geology, Physics, Chemistry and the various aspects of Biology, Botany, Zoology, Physiology, Embryology, Histology and Anatomy, all receive due attention under the most competent teachers.

FACILITIES.

The Daniel Scholl Observatory, the De Peyster Library, the Literary Societies, with their Libraries; the Gymnasium, the new Science Building, with unsurpassed facilities in its new Laboratories, making full provision for Physics, Chemistry, Assaying, Geology, and Biology in all branches.

TERMS.

The expenses are very moderate. College Fees for the Year, in three payments, $65.00. Boarding and Furnished Rooms, from $3.25 to $4.00 per week. Necessary expenses, not including Books and Laundry, $194.-50.

THE WORK OF THE PUBLICATION BOARD.

IN different places in the Almanac reference is made to "The Reformed Church Messenger." Its publication each week constitutes a part of the work of the Publication Board. This Board also publishes "The Reformed Church Review." It further exerts a wide influence in the Church through the publication of books and their sale as well as by the sale of those of other publishers. The volume of business in this last department has grown from $8,000 in 1899, to almost $24,000 in 1903. The publication of the new edition of the "Golden Censer," Dr. Russell's helpful book "Jesus in the Homes Saving the Children," new edition of "The Young Parson," and of Dr. Harbaugh's matchless Penna. German Poems, "The Harfe," sold and appreciated today in every State of the Union, were all favorably received.

During the past year the book to lead the sale of all others was the 20th Century Edition of the Heidelberg Catechism. Nearly 10,000 copies were sold at 25c each, postpaid, or $2.50 per dozen, not prepaid. A few of the good things that have made this book so attractive are the Senior and Junior Catechisms, the Orders of Service, the Hymns, the Prayers and the Historical Sketch of the Reformed Church and the Heidelberg Catechism. Each church member should have one. Dr. Bahner's "Supplemental Catechetical Work and Handbook of the Heidelberg League" is also very popular and needs to be placed in the hands of all the young people of the Reformed Church who are being prepared for confirmation. It is sold at 10 cents each or $1.00 per hundred. Sample copy mailed free to pastors. A few copies of Rev. Alexander Smellie's Heidelberg Catechism published as a volume of the series "Books for the Heart" by this author, and containing in its introduction a most beautiful tribute to the Heidelberg Catechism, remain unsold and may be secured by an early order. The price is 75 cents, postpaid. "A Digest of the Acts and Deliverances of the General Synod" has been published at 75 cents per copy, postage 9 cents extra.

During the month of September was published "The Minutes and Letters of the Coetus of the German Reformed Congregations in Pennsylvania from 1734 to 1792." This is the crowning historical work of the Reformed Church in the United States. Future historians can only borrow from this volume, nothing new is left for them to record.. Over $4,000 was spent in gathering and translating the material found mostly in the archives of Holland and in three different languages. A complete copy in English of all the letters and reports to and the proceedings of the Coetus (Synod) from the first report of Boehm (1734) to that of Helffrich (1792) makes a book of 485 very interesting pages. Many orders for it were received in advance of its publication. The price is $2.50, postpaid.

At the same time that this Almanac goes to press the printing of a new book is started. It is entitled "Prayers for the Family and for Special Occasions" with Scripture Readings, etc. There will be 268 pages in large type and two sizes, table and pocket. It will leave the bindery December 10, and will no doubt command a large sale because it is calculated to supply a long felt want and in fuller measure than has ever before been contemplated. Better write for descriptive price-list on or after above date.

Pages 40 and 41 of the Almanac present the Publication Board's condensed price-list. Any book or publication not there listed may be secured at special low prices by addressing the Publication Board, 1306 Arch St., Philadelphia, Pa.
